(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JAN. 17, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

So busy working on the Tenth Anniversary of the Tryon Daily Bulletin the reporter forgot one of the most important anniversaries in Tryon. Today is the Seventh birthday of the Tryon Bank & Trust Company, which opened for business on January 17, 1931. It started with $25,000 capital. Within two weeks deposits brought total resources up to $68,097.29. Four years later they were $370,579.84. Last week they were $533,729.69. This excellent growth is a tribute to executive vice-president Julian B. Hester, and to the other officers and directors named in Saturday's Bulletin . . . . Christmas greeting just received from Eugene Turner from somewhere in China. Not being able to read Chinese I can't tell where it was mailed . . . . Isn't this a nice spring day! . . . . Visited tea room at the Tryon Country club Sunday afternoon—Nice place. Delicious food. Beautiful setting. Unique . . . . $100,000 fire damaged McLellan's dime store in Spartanburg Sunday. Four others nearby also suffered. . . . Chinese reported turning back Japs at one point . . . Socialist Leon Blum organizing a new French cabinet . . . Former Sheriff and Tax Collector W. Y. Wilkins said the other day that he would be a candidate for sheriff in the

At Kiwanis Tuesday

Dr. J. H. Boldridge of Landrum, prominent retired Baptist minister and father-in-law of the Landrum Methodist minister, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. Hoyt O. Prince will be in charge of the program.

To Charleston

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn will leave Thursday for Charleston, S. C., to join Lord and Lady Astor enroute from Florida. Lady Astor had planned to visit her sister in Tryon but it is necessary for her to go on to Virginia to visit her brother, Colonel Langhorne and her aunt. Lord Astor will return with Mr. and Mrs. Flynn on Saturday for a visit at Little Orchard.

"Best Citizen"

Miss Elizabeth Landrum, of Landrum, a Senior in Coker college, Hartsville, and president of the student body of that school was recently distinguished by her classmates in her election as the representative of her class to appear in the American College Year Book as the "Best Citizen". Miss Landrum is prominent in all student activities at Coker, and was chosen by the faculty this year as one of five Coker students to appear in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The Tryon Boy Scouts will not meet tonight as scheduled.
