

The Tryon Garden club will open its next meeting to the public as the program is of unusual interest. The speaker will be Mr. Norwood Drayton Hastie, owner of the famous Magnolia Gardens in Charleston. He will give an illustrated lecture showing the growth and beauty of the gardens.

The property has been in the family for three generations, and the owners in turn have made it their life work to add to its interest and development. Many artists and writers have been inspired by its beauty, among others John Galsworthy, who gave it the adjective "Other-Worldly."

The meeting will be held in Sunnydale Cabin, Wednesday, Jan. 26th, at 3:30. A small fee (25c) will be charged.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES
