

Better Schools

Supt. P. S. White of Columbus was the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., and told of efforts to provide manual training, business, agricultural, and home economics courses in the schools of the county in order to train all students to be useful according to their talents. He exhibited several pictures painted by a high school girl after a few lessons illustrating the talent among our young people awaiting to be developed with proper guidance. He invited all interested to visit the manual training school at Mill Spring which opened this past month. It is in session Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, afternoons. Joe E. Troy had charge of the program.
