Tryonites To Hear Talk About

“Little Church Around the Corner”

A real treat is in store for the people of this community who will have the opportunity of hearing the Rev. Randolph Ray, D. D., Rector of the “Little Church Around the Corner,” New York City, on Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the Parish House in Tryon. Dr. Ray will be the guest speaker of the Woman’s Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Cross. The public is invited to hear him tell about this famous little church. Miss Margaret Law and the late Mr. Homer Ellertson were married in this church, ten years ago, (September 17th). Dr. Ray came to Tryon to rest but has consented to give this talk on Monday. Modern communication systems made it possible to get the above picture in time for today’s Bulletin. As soon as the editor learned that

Dr. Ray would speak, he wired the New York office for a picture of the church, and a cooperative secretary had it here the next day.
