Notice—

"Second Notice, of my wife Hannah is hereby given forbidding all persons whatever, from harboring or keeping her, and from trusting her on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting. Saugertiesi (Kingston precinct, Nov. 18, 1799." The above notice is one of the many interesting advertisements appearing in the Ulster County Gazette of Kingston, N. Y., on January 4, 1800. Franklin Little of Tryon has a copy of this unique paper which was given to him by his father 12 years ago.

Scouters

The men in the Boy Scouts of America are real Scouts and, like the boys who take the oath, "On My Honor I Will Do My Best . . ." they give money, time and service to pushing forward a wonderful organization that builds character in future American citizens. On Friday, one of these men, Scout Executive Charles Lea, of the Palmetto Council, comes up from Spartanburg to talk to the Rotary club on Scouting. From Atlanta to Hendersonville comes Dr. H. L. Turner, prominent Presbyterian minister and member of the Atlanta Council, to speak tonight at a big Boy Scout rally. Tryon, too, has a number of outstanding men who have given years of service to the Scout movement.
