

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 16, 1938

Wall-Rector

A marriage of interest to a large number of friends in North and South Carolina was that of Miss Lillian Wall to Mr. N. R. Rector, Jr., which took place on Tuesday evening at Greer, S. C., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wall. Only members of the family and a few close friends were present. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. P. Lamb. The bride wore a dress of maroon velvet with a corsage of white gardenias. The groom is the son of Mr. N. R. Rector of Tryon, and is a salesman for the Columbia Beauty and Barber Supply Co. He is a graduate of Tryon High School, class of 1933. Mrs. Rector has made Tryon her home for a number of years and is the proprietor and operator of Lillian's Beauty Shop. The young couple will make their home in Tryon.

Dr. Edsall Speaker at P. T. A. Monday

Dr. David L. Edsall, noted medical dean, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Parent-Teacher Association meeting on Monday, Feb. 21 at 3:30 o'clock at the school auditorium. He will speak on the "Principles of Dietetics". Hostesses for the social hour following are Mrs. C. M. Eargle, Mrs. Fred F. Swann, Mrs. James M. Baker, and Mrs. S. T. Wood.

Austria put under thumb of Hitler. Germany, Italy and Austria to co-operate.

"CURB" REPORTER

Dr. J. Louis Cobb, former druggist at Slack's, now in the drug business at Mount Olive, N. C., has art as one of his many hobbies. The Bulletin received from him yesterday an oil portrait of a colored Bishop, as payment for a subscription. . . . Milton Fuller who was here for three weeks last season writes from Monterey, Calif. "As I read your wonderful edition I can't help but wander back to dear old Tryon. My plans for next spring include Tryon and some of Dr. Fuldner's wonderful wine. Best wishes for the world's smallest daily newspaper" John W. Artz, former Polk County Agent, sends check for $3 from Albemarle, N. C., for the Bulletin and News . . . One of our big edition disappointments was the failure to get a contribution from Donald Culross Peattie. He writes from Santa Barbara, Calif.: "I am so terribly sorry that your letter came to me when I was away for a visit on the desert so that I could not have the pleasure of writing a word of greeting to Tryon and my friends there. I have just been staying at Twenty Nine Palms on the Mohave Desert. It is smaller than Pumpkin Center though a great deal easier to see. There is about one person to a palm and absolutely nothing else in sight." . . . Miss Mary Adams of Tryon was recently elected president of her Junior class at the School of Horticulture, Ambler, Pennsylvania . . . Secretary Isham Henderson has a number of civil service jobs open.