Our Dictator!

That fickle, flighty Banty-bird
Goes strutting here and there,
Regardless of impending cars
That come from everywhere
He used to manage Ballenger's,
With his assistant, Hall.
Abetted by his tutor, Buck:
He bossed them—one and all!
But now 'big business' fills his mind;

He's active as a flea,
Discussing business methods with
His new firm, "&P."

Now, if he lived in Germany,
He never could "get by"
With any such proceedings he'd
Be run in as a spy!

He'd never crow; "Heil Hitler".
No!

I know it—so do you.
He'd gaze at Hitler's mouth-brow,
and

Yell: "What a dude 'll do"!
So, let him thank his lucky star—
(That sunky little cuss!)

That HIS egg was n't hatched abroad,

But here, at home with us.

—Hilda von Siller.

Miss Margie Bolinger of Mars Hill college is home for the week-end.
