

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, FEB. 21, 1938

"CURB" REPOKTER

O. O. McIntyre had listed in his diary a few days ago, a note from Ruth Briggs, Clare's widow down in Virginia. She still gets the Tryon Daily Bulletin although Clare, the daughter, is no longer in Tryon, much to our regret for Elizabeth Anne Vining was taking art lessons from her at the Tryon Craft School. There's something beneficial in contacts with talented people if you have a desire. Driscoll, Odd's editor for the past 12 years, will succeed him as writer of "New York Day by Day" . . . Chief Kiser found a pocketbook and driver's license Saturday night . . . Have you seen the Rowell paintings at Sunnysdale? . . . Spring is really here. Miss Sawver and Mrs. Ashworth have 14 different varieties of flowers in bloom at their cottage in the valley . . . Allen Hines bid in Miss Savage's property the other day. It will be his unless somebody raises the bid within the 20 days . . . Prof. James Brooks says we can make our sub-conscious mind work for us. We can start early in the morning telling it that we are going to be happy, in good health and successful. It is surprising how much will be accomplished. Try it! . . . Hoyt Prince is out again after ten days illness . . . British diplomacy has been driven out of the garden

—Continued on Back Page—

Court of Honor

The Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held tonight beginning at 7:30 at the Parish House. The Chairman, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln will preside, assisted by Scout Executive R. M. Schiele. Following the Court Mr. Schiele will show a short movie program on Cubbing, an organization for younger boys under Scout age. All parents of boys nine, ten, and eleven years old should attend this meeting. The public is invited.

Cubs! Cubs!!

What institution or group of individuals would like to organize a Cub Pack? Cubbing is a leisure-time program of activities associating boys with adults in doing things for others. It is great recreation for the adult and an opportunity for the boy to learn how to develop body, brain and spirit and add to his happiness by "doing his best." Cubbing develops character. If you would learn something about Cubbing. Come to the Boy Scout Court of Honor tonight at the Parish House and see the movies of the program.

Kiwanis Tuesday

County Agent J. A. Wilson will be in charge of the Kiwanis program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon.

Auxiliary to Meet Tuesday

Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet Tuesday at 3:30 with Mrs. J. S. Kell. "Glorious Living" subject.