

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 23, 1938

Kiwanis AG Program

The Tryon Kiwanis club has adopted County Agent J. A. Wilson's agricultural program as one of its major objectives for 1938. J. F. Criswell, state farm management specialist and eight prominent Polk county farmers were guests of the club on Tuesday. The program is as follows:

For 4-H club: Prizes:

- A. Best Demonstration team. Feeding Dairy Cattle, trip to 4-H Camp; $4.00.
- Swine Production, trip to 4-H camp; $4.00.
- Corn Production, trip to 4-H camp; $4.00.
- Cotton Production, trip to 4-H camp; $4.00.
- B. Best Home Beautification Project ($3-$2); $5.00.
- C. Best Strawberry Project ($2-$1); $3.00.
- D. Best Sweet Potato Project with certified seed ($2-$1); $3.
- E. Have each winning team as guests of club.
- F. Prizes for Best Pprojects complete, $8.00.

For Adults:

- Best Pasture Demonstration, $5.
- Best Forestry Demonstration $5.
- Prizes at Variety Demonstration, $5.00.
- Furnish refreshments and representatives for Farm Tour and for Pasture Tour.

Invite Farm Management group of eight to regular Kiwanis meeting February 22, to hear Mr. Criswell.

Invite Farm Board (18 members) to meeting for Special Program sometime before fall.

"CURB" REPORTER

Echoes of the Bulletin Anniversary Edition still come in from afar. Homer Goodell writes to C. M. Howes from Memphis, Tenn., to "express the enjoyment it has given me. I have read it from cover to cover over and over again and shall do it some more. Of course to me, the coverage of early days is very incomplete, but at that, the publisher has done well and I congratulate him. You know I date back in Tryon 55 years. I could have given him some interesting matter and names of lots of early settlers that have been omitted . . . At any rate, the issue was fine and wonderfully interesting and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for sending it to me, I shall always keep it. Until her death about two years ago Belle McAboy and I kept up a correspondence, keeping alive the memories of the eighties and nineties in Tryon. She was a leading spirit of Tryon and Lynn, and was the daughter, of course, of the one and only Dr. McAboy, the High Priest of the country from the collapse of the Klu-Klux-Klan until his death. The older I get, the more I long for Tryon, the dearest place on earth. My nephew, Frank Goodell, is in Tryon occasionally, but he is on the jump all the time and I do not see much of him; he is in California

-----Continued on Back Page-----