

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEB. 24, 1938

Abernathy—Ford

Miss Lois Abernathy of Landrum and Mr. Euland Ford of Tryon were married on Monday, Feb. 21, at Spartanburg at the office of the Judge of Probate. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Broadus Ford of Tryon. The young couple will make their home here.

Rotary Friday

Senator F. P. Bacon will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel.

Negro Spirituals

A feature of the "Celestial City" program at the Parish House tonight will be the singing of Negro Spirituals by the choir of St. Luke's Colored Methodist church. The religious drama will be presented under the auspices of the Tryon P.-T. A.

Feature Writer Here

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Garden of Birmingham, Ala., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Vanderhoef, Jr. Mr. Garden, who was formerly editor of the Bangkok Daily Mail in Siam, is now staff writer for the United Features Syndicate of New York.

B. B. Tournament

Polk County Basketball Tournament February 26th 28th; March 1st and 2nd. At Columbus on February 26th; at Saluda on Monday, February 28th; at Columbus on March 1st; finals at Green's Creek on March 2nd.

Basketball Tonight

Tonight at 7:30, Coach Nanney brings his Green Creek champions to Tryon. The visitors have run up a string of 16 consecutive victories and Tryon is out to beat them. The locals have upsets the visiting boys for the past two years when they were heading for an undefeated season.

Green Creek girls have on their team one of the highest scorers ever in this section. Towering six feet, two inches tall, she is able to drop the ball in the basket at will with the guards being unable to reach that high. Yesterday Tryon's midgets scored their second victory over Saluda by the score of 38-25. Taylor paced the locals by ringing up 18 points. He was ably assisted by the stellar play of McFarland and Vining each having seven points to their credit. The following boys played for Tryon: McFarland, Jackson, Taylor Ford, Vining, Durham and Leon Green. Saluda players were Seay, R., McQuillan, Burford, Pace, Cooper, McCallister, Rhodes and Laughter. Pace for Saluda was high man with 16 points.

Free Clinics

Three free clinics are conducted in Polk county by Dr. John Z. Preston, physician, and Miss Irene Clark, nurse for the American Women's Hospitals. One is held at the Community House in Cooper's Gap; one at the Katherine Beatson Health House, Mill Spring; and one at St. Luke's hospital. These are open to persons unable to pay a doctor.