J. S. Cromer

J. S. Cromer, 64, died at his home in Tryon, Friday afternoon. Mr. Cromer had been in ill health for a number of years. He was born in Newberry county, South Carolina, but the earlier years of his life were spent in Piedmont and Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. Cromer was connected with the textile industry for the greater part of his life. He owned and operated the Cromer Supply Company in Spartanburg, after which he was traveling salesman for Andrews Loom, Reed and Harness Co. For about eight years he had been a salesman for the Drake Corporation of Norfolk, Va.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the McFarland Funeral Home in Tryon. Mr. Cromer was a member of the Spartan Masonic Lodge, No. 70. Funeral services will be conducted by the Masonic lodges of Spartanburg and Tryon.

Mr. Cromer is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ruth Farr Cromer, surviving also are three sons, David Edwin, Ben, and two daughters, Evelyn and Lillian Cromer.

It is requested that no flowers be sent.

Poor Housing Conditions

Can you believe it? There are persons living in Polk county in unchinked log cabins. A large proportion of the farm homes have no sanitary provisions, not even out-door toilets.
