

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1938

Green's Creek Cops Title In Polk Tourney

Green's Creek, March 2.—Green's Creek cagers captured both the boys' and girls Polk county championships by downing two Columbus teams here tonight. The boys won, 31 to 18, and the girls scored a 35 to 12 victory.

Columbus girls, defending champions, forfeited their game early in the final quarter by walking off the court in protest against the expulsion of player G. Williams.

Lynn Blackwell

Lynn Blackwell, 51, of Mill Spring section, died early this morning at St. Lukes hospital after a lingering illness. Funeral services Thursday afternoon. Burial at Walker cemetery.

At Calvary

The Rev. C. P. Burnett will preach Sunday morning at the Calvary Episcopal church at Fletcher.

TYMA Bowling

Doughboys won from the Lint-head Dukes Wednesday night. The Hitchhikers won from the Must-Get-Theirs.

HEADLINES

Fleeing Chinese soldiers lost 50,000 men . . . General Pershing improving in health . . . Chairman Morgan of the TVA asks for investigation of his department.

Horace Newman wants all those going on the picnic ride Sunday to notify him by Saturday afternoon so he'll know how many steaks to buy . . . Perry Coggins reports that he and about 20 other men assisted Warden Williams in fighting fire until about 4 o'clock this morning. White Oak Mountain was ablaze and fire came almost up Mrs. Adams' yard at "The Narrows." A good shower came this morning, a little late to help . . . Tyre Sanders motion picture cameraman of Atlanta for the Universal Newsreel, was in Tryon this morning on his way to Saluda to take motion pictures of William F. Morris and his 147 year old fire which is receiving much publicity all over the United States. "This Curious World" featured Mr. Morris and the fire in daily newspapers all over the United States on Tuesday. Mr. Sanders is also considering "shooting" the Banty rooster. He missed him two years ago when taking pictures of the Bulletin. He may visit the dog show Saturday if he can adjust his schedule . . . California is suffering its worst flood in years. Movie actors having to report for duty in row boats. Heavy property damage . . . Meeting of executive board of the Hospital Association to-night at Miss Flentye's . . . Great Britain to increase army equipment . . . Blue Ridge Parkway to be named Doughton B. R. P. in honor of N. C. Congressman.