

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1938

Aiken Pictures Have Arrived for Preview On Next Tuesday

The beautiful paintings of Charles A. Aiken, have arrived at the Rock House Art Gallery and are being unpacked for the preview on Tuesday, March 15, at which time those receiving invitations may see the pictures before the public showing the following day. The Gallery will be open to the public from March 16 to April 2. Mr. Aiken maintained a studio in or near Boston until 1921, when he came to New York, where he has worked since. He has exhibited in all important American exhibitions in oil and watercolor, and has shown by invitation in the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Boston Society of Water Color Painters, the Boston Art club, the Brooklyn Museum and the Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego.

Margaret F. Ford

Miss Margaret F. Ford of Charles, S. C., died in Tryon this morning in her 102nd year. The body will be taken to Charleston, S. C., on Saturday and funeral services will be held at Connally's Chapel, Charleston, on Sunday, March 13. Miss Ford had made her home in Tryon for sometime and passed her 101st birthday here on December 5th. She was born in 1836 near Georgetown, S. C., and was a member of a prominent South Carolina family, the daughter of Stephen and Jane Thurston Ford.

Auction Off Jewelry

A big jewelry auction sale will be conducted Saturday afternoon and night at Peeler's Jewelry shop in Tryon. This will be the first sale of this kind in Tryon in over ten years. Mr. Peeler is not going out of business. He is auctioning off valuable jewelry bought at a sacrifice from Brevard, Marion and other jewelry stores. Some things worth $50 may be sold for $1. A double page advertisement announcing the sale is published in this issue of the Bulletin. You can see the merchandise now on display at the store on Trade street. A large number of prizes are offered.

Executive Democrats Met On Thursday

The Polk County Democratic Executive Committee met on Thursday afternoon in Columbus at 3 o'clock and passed a resolution to request all Democratic candidates to refrain from using the absentee ballot in the coming primary. They also recommended Ernest Thompson of Saluda and Henry Thompson of Mill Spring for appointment to the County Election Board.

Mrs. Sidney Lanier to Speak on Wednesday

At the next Lanier club tea, on Wednesday, March 16th, Mrs. Sidney Lanier, daughter-in-law of the poet, will give an informal talk comprising impressions of old Tryon and of the great poet. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock and the talk will follow at 4:45.