

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, APRIL 4, 1938

L. N. Scoggins

L. N. Scoggins, 70, formerly of Polk county but for the past several years of Union, S. C., passed away this morning (Monday) at 8 o'clock at Union, S. C.

The deceased is survived by the following children, Lindsey Scoggins, Wash Scoggins, Nathan Scoggins, of Union, S. C.; Claude Scoggins, of Columbus; and Mrs. Cariechia Johnson of Traveler's Rest, S. C.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at noon today.

Williams-Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold H. Williams announce the marriage of the r daughter, Bertha Janet, to Mr. Clarence Smith on Saturday, April 2nd, at Newport, Tenn. The bride is a graduate of Tryon high school and of Cecil's Business college. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Columbus. The young couple will make their home in Columbus for the present.

Rediscovering The Old South

J. G. de Roulhac Hamilton, former dean of history at the University of North Carolina and who is now engaged in research work for the University Library, looking up old records and historical places, will be the guest speaker at the Lanier club on Thursday, April 7th, at 3:30 o'clock. He will discuss some interesting phases of his work of "Rediscovering the Old South". The public is invited to hear Dean Hamilton and to meet him at tea following the lecture.

Buckner-Dedmond

Mr. Robert Walter Dedmond of Columbus and Miss Iris Buckner of Waynesville were married on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Columbus Presbyterian church in the presence of relatives and close friends. The pastor, Rev. D. M. McGeachy, performed the beautiful ring ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Columbus. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dedmond, is the local manager of the Kalmia Dairy. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Buckner of Waynesville.

Upton-Gilreath

Miss Caroline Upton of Tryon and Mr. Drayton Gilreath of Saluda were married this morning in Hendersonville at the Court House by Dr. Brooks. The groom is a WPA teacher of adults. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Edgar Upton of Tryon. Mr. and Mrs. Gilreath will make their home in Saluda.

Hunting Dates

Wednesday, April 6 — Hounds leave kennels at 2 p. m., meeting at Morgan's Chapel.

Saturday, April 9—Hounds leave kennels at 10:30, meeting at Rock Cut.

More Sales

Senator F. P. Bacon has purchased the Mt. Industries building from N. B. Jackson, and the Fred Swann houses and Wright Gaines place on Lynn road, also the Homer Arledge place on lower Trade.