

“CURB” REPORTER

Coming! April 7! the Jock Blois Show! When you were little didn't you have shows and circuses in the back yard or on the lawn? You invited all your friends in the neighborhood and had the thrill of your life putting on a show. Jock Blois who is in the First Grade is a real showman. He believes in advertising. He laborously wrote out his advertisement with capital letters and asked a friend to put it in the Bulletin. Jock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas S. Blois and lives in Gillette Woods. You will find his advertisement in another column . . . See in Edgar Rowe's Chicago Motor News Tips for Tourists column the following item: "April 13, Tryon, N. C.—All dog lovers and equestrians attention! This year's annual horse and hound show is to attract more spirited competition than ever, and the class of entries together with the handsome awards make this meeting of breeders and trainers outstanding in the world of sport. The horse show dance assembles all enthusiasts the night before."

. . . Mrs. B. E. Samples has started listing taxes for Tryon Township.

Miss Ann Bingham has returned to Shipley School, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, flying by air via Spartanburg.

Miss Ruth Lincoln has returned to Randolph-Macon college at Lynchburg, Va.

Tryons Theatre is now cleaned with a new Progress dust-proof cleaning machine that purifies the air as it removes the dirt and dust.

"Buy a COMPLETE coverage Automobile Insurance Policy written by the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company of Hartford, Connecticut." E. Perry Manville, Agent, Phone 71.—Adv. (2)

*Baskets
Homespuns
Weavings of all Kinds
Woodcarvings
Pottery*

VISITORS WELCOME

Mountain Industries, Inc.

Gift and Sport Shop

APPALACHIAN HAND WEAVERS