

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, APRIL 11, 1938

From The New Yorker Via Chicago

W. Bethel of Chicago, a collector of queer and unusual items from various publications writes for a copy of the Bulletin which contained the following advertisements that appeared in last week's New Yorker:

$20 REWARD

For the return of my radio and for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who stole it. The radio is six tube 1937 model Chevrolet auto radio. Notify Bill Scriven, Tryon, N. C.—Adv. 3tp.

RADIO FOR SALE

FOR SALE: One late model Chevrolet automobile radio. Good condition. Price $15 Cash. See Johnson at the Bulletin Office.

—Adjoining ads in the Tryon (N. C.) Daily Bulletin.

"Is there a detective in the audience?" Asks the New Yorker.

Play Postponed

The Garden club play has been postponed one week to April 26th and 27th, two days.

Zogbaum Speaks

Capt. Zogbaum, formerly of the U. S. Navy, but who recently came to Tryon and purchased land in the Hunting country, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon.

Horse Show Buffet Supper Sunnydale Tuesday

The annual Horse and Hound Show Buffet supper at Sunnydale will be held on Tuesday at 7 p. m. the night before the show. Price 75 cents. It is a Dutch Treat affair for exhibitors, guests, officials, committees, etc. In order to be sure of having enough food for all everyone should make his reservation as soon as possible. Approximately 75 people attended the supper last year.

Valedictorian

Miss Betty Shelnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Shelnett, president of her school class at Brenau Academy, Gainesville, Ga., has been selected as the valedictorian of her class she having the highest scholastic standing in her class, according to an announcement from Academy officials.

Horse Show Dance

Al Dunn's orchestra will furnish the music for the annual Horse and Hound Show Ball on Tuesday night at Oak Hall hotel. This popular dance is attended by approximately 200 people every season and is held for the exhibitors and guests of the show. The script is $1. H. B. Kelly, manager of Oak Hall hotel, is chairman of the dance committee.