

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1938

Stores To Close For Big Show

Tryon merchants will close their places of business on Wednesday April 13th from 1 to 5 p. m. in order that all employees may have an opportunity to attend the 13th annual Horse and Hound Show at Harmon Field. Tryon public school children will have a holiday not only for that day but for the rest of the week. Tryon Boy Scouts under the direction of Scoutmaster W. A. Schilletter act as guides during the day at Harmon Field. The Hound Show begins at 9 a. m., with Manager C. W. Ballenger in charge. The Horse show will start at 10:30 with Secretary C. J. Lynch in charge. The intermission will be at noon from 1 to 2 p. m. at which time a box lunch will be sold to the guests so that none will have to leave the grounds. An added feature during the intermission will be the exhibition of the winning hounds in the Horse Showing followed by a horn blowing contest.

Roger Stone of Lexington, Ky., will be the Hound Show judge; for the horsemanship judge Mrs. James A. Hewett of Long Island, N. Y.; for saddle horses Col. A. S. Thompson of Paducah, Ky.; for hunter and jumper horses Lt. Col. Edwin M. Hardy of Lexington, Ky.

Eighty horses had been entered for the show by noon today and night all entries will have been filled for what promises to be the biggest show in the history of the club.

A reception for exhibitors and guests will be held this afternoon at the Tryon Country club, a sub-

Continued on Page Three...

At Scout Convention

Vice-president Nelson Jackson, Jr. of the Piedmont Boy Scout Council and Senator F. P. Bacon, chairman of the Cubbing program in Polk County are attending a four-states regional Scouter convention today in Spartanburg at the Franklin hotel. Mr. Jackson will conduct one of the important group discussions on district organization. Senator Bacon will take in the Cubbing program headed by Frank Wood of Atlanta, Ga. Senator Bacon is eager to establish the program in Polk County in order to bring the younger boys in touch with the ideal of Scouting and better citizenship. Scout officials from Florida, Georgia and the Carolinas will attend the convention.

Lynch Buys Home

C. J. Lynch has purchased the old Daniel home formerly occupied by Owen S. Bird on Melrose Ave. The house is located across the street in front of Mr. Lynch's present home. The house will be remodeled right away.

Reception Today

The Horse and Hound Show reception at the Country club this afternoon will be in charge of several hostesses as follows: Mrs. John Washburn from 4 to 5 o'clock, Mrs. Samuel Bingham from 5 to 6 o'clock and Mrs. Daniel Boone from 6 o'clock on.