The First Defense

Capt. Rufus Zogbaum, U. S. N. retired, gave a very interesting talk at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon. He outlined the efficient work of the naval aviation system which is the first line of defense in case of attack by an enemy. Huge carrier ships 800 feet long with several acres of floor space carry over 75 airplanes. These airplanes are equipped with the most modern instruments that aid the lost aviator in returning to his carrier ship while at sea. Over 170 skilled men are so well trained in their work that everything has to click at the right time in sending ships into the air and in receiving them on their return. Capt. Zogbaum recently bought a tract of land in the Hunting Country and has chosen Tryon for his permanent home. M. B. Flynn had charge of the program.

Costa Purchases More Land

Thomas Costa who came to Tryon from Cleveland, Ohio several years ago has bought a large tract of land from the Ryxhaven estate on the Howard Gap Road section. This land adjoins Mr. Costa's vinyard and floral gardens.

J. S. Massenburg, former president of the Tryon Country Club is here for the Horse and Hound Show. He played golf yesterday on the Country Club's new grass greens and was high in his praise over the wonderful improvement. Only those people who visit other golf courses can appreciate the beautiful Tryon course.

Perfect Weather For Horse Show

For 13 years Tryon has had perfect weather for its Horse and Hound Show and today being April 13 many feared the law of averages would bring rain this year but instead the gods gave the show for today the most perfect weather imaginable. As this is being written hundreds of people are filing through the gates at Harmon Field for what promises to be the best Horse and Hound show in the history of the community. Manager C. W. Ballenger is listing entries for the world's biggest Hound Show and Roger Stone of Lexington, Ky., is on hand to judge the fine dogs brought from several states. The judges of Horses arrived yesterday and are Mrs. James A. Hewlett of New York, Col. A. S. Thompson, of Paducah, Ky. and Col. Edwin M. Hardy of Lexington, Ky. General Chairman Carter P. Brown and Secretary C. J. Lynch are running a beautiful show. Box lunches will be on sale on the show grounds during the intermission from 1 to 2 p. m. so that guests will not have to leave the grounds at all. An added feature during the intermission will be the showing of the winning hounds in the Horse show ring and a horn blowing contest by the hunters. A delightful reception was held Tuesday afternoon at the Country Club where Mrs. Fuldner's delicious Hungarian cakes and beverages were served to former friends and newcomers attending their first show in Tryon.
