There is always something unusually smart and stylish about clothing that is made from fabrics made by hand. Hand-woven fabrics today can be glorified by the tailor's art into clothing of distinctive beauty. The "homespun" of yesterday is now a hand-woven fabric accepted by fashion, and the pride of well dressed men and women. Our famous Appalachian Fabrics are woven by expert weavers. They will not sag nor shrink nor lose their rich coloring when fashioned into clothes for you to wear. We invite you to stand beside our looms as they are operated and see the colorful patterns slowly take form under the deft hands of the weavers.
