Tax Listing Over Next Week

Polk county property owners have one more week in which to list their taxes. Some people think because they listed last year they don't have to list this year. Taxpayers have to list every year. The lister for Tryon township is Mrs. B. E. Samples at the old town hall. She will be there every day next week. The other listers for the various townships are posted at public places in the county. W. G. Egerton is tax supervisor.
