

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 2, 1938

Annual Flower Show At Tryon Well Attended

By EDITH MISSILDINE
In The Asheville Citizen

Tryon, April 30.—The fifth annual flower show to be sponsored by the Tryon Garden club was held yesterday at the Parish House, with large numbers of visitors attending throughout the day.

Exhibits of many beautiful flowers and unusual plants were artistically arranged on tables in the main room and on the stage.

Judges included Mrs. Garibaldi and Mrs. Sheldon of Charlotte, Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Dodge of Biltmore Forest and Mrs. Henry Crigler and Mrs. Ellis, of Greenville, S. C.

The judges used this year a new system of making awards, in which judging was done strictly on the point basis. Therefore in several classes similar ribbons were awarded to more than one exhibit, since many were equally deserving. Blue, red and yellow ribbons were awarded for first, second, and third places, and in the two classes for school children special prizes were given.

A prize for the most outstanding exhibit in the show was given by the judges to Mrs. Ralph Erskine for her Oriental poppies. The prize for the exhibit judged most popular by all present was received by Mrs. Harkness Smith for a beautifully lighted and artistically arranged screen. Boutonnieres, miniature bouquets, and corsages were sold by Miss Laura

Continued on Page Three

Merrill Fans 17 as Red Oak Defeats Tryon

The Red Oak Industrial league club scored a 9 to 8 victory over Tryon Saturday on the Red Oak field.

Merrill, on the mount for the winners, fanned 17 Tryon batters during the game and did not allow a run until the ninth when the visitors pushed over their eight markers and threatened to take the lead.

Score:

Tryon000 000 008—8 5 6
Red Oak032 000 40x—9 17 4

Harden and Capps; Merrill and E. Burnett.—Asheville Citizen.

"A Wedding" and "A Man of Destiny"

Two short interesting plays, one a drama and the other a comedy will be given by the Garden Club under the direction of Mrs. Louis Fuldner on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at the Parish House. "A Man of Destiny" by Bernard Shaw, takes place at an Italian inn at the Austro-Italian border. The cast: John Fuldner as Napoleon, Roger Shaffer the Lieutenant, Bertha Lubeck Jackson the Lady, and Ed Hopkins as the Inn Keeper.

"A Wedding" by John Kirkpatrick, is a comedy with William R. Jackson as the bridegroom, Earle Tisdale the best man, Jane Raoul Bingham the bride, Alexander Arledge the groomsman, Mrs. E. Pue-Williams mother of the groom, W. B. Weigel father of the bride, Hope Washburn aunt of the bride. The scene is a country house in June.