

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

Mrs. C. R. Boynton, who came to Tryon this week to bury her mother, Mrs. Williams, is a radio writer of dramatic programs for the National Broadcasting Co., and her programs are presented on Sunday afternoons at 4 o'clock on the "There Was A Woman" skit . . . . The Landrum, S. C. Juniors and Seniors held their banquet at Sunnysdale Tuesday night . . . Editor Blackburn Johnson of the Farmers Federation News was a visitor to Polk Wednesday. He and Here 'N' Yonder Johnson carried the "Curb" Reporter to the home of Fiddlin' John Weaver in Green Creek section. Editor Johnson took a picture of Mr. Weaver for publicity in connection with Mr. Weaver's trip this week to Washington, D. C., where he will appear twice on the program of the National Folk Festival on Sunday, May 8th. In the morning he will play "Cacklin' Hen" on his violin and in the evening will render "The Fox Chase." 500 contestants from 29 states will be on the three-day program. Mr. Weaver is sponsored by the Federation . . . . Was watching the charming Honorable Dinah Brand from London drive the Flynn's station wagon yesterday. It is hard enough to drive through traffic the way you have been accustomed to, but to switch over to the opposite methods takes

—Continued on Back Page—

Honor Students At Tryon High

Tryon high school has announced its honor graduates for the four year period. Ruth McFarland is the Valedictorian. For second honors, Lula Burrell and Henry McGeachy are tied.

The Valedictorian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. McFarland. For the past eleven years she has attended the Tryon public school. She has been very active in her school life. She is the vice-president of the Senior class, president of the Tennis club, president of the Beta club, and chairman of the high school Entertainment committee.

Lula Burrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burrell, has also attended the Tryon public school for the past eleven years. She has been particularly active in the Literary society, having served as vice-president, critic, and chairman of the Program committee.

Henry McGeachy, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McGeachy entered the Tryon school in the Third grade from the Whiteville, N. C., schools. He is president of the Senior class, and has held the following offices: President of the Junior class, president of the Dance club, secretary of the Literary society, secretary of the Beta club. For three years he has been a member of both the football and track teams, and also a school news reporter.

One fact of interest is that each has had either a brother or sister who has previously attained the same honors. In the class of '36,

—Continued on Back Page—