

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1938

P.-T. A. Monday

The Home Economics department of the Tryon high school has completed a unit of work and the Domestic Science class will put on a style show immediately following the business session of the P.-T. A. on Monday afternoon at 3:30. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Democrat Convention Meets Saturday

Polk County Democratic Convention will meet on Saturday at 2 p. m., at the Court House in Columbus for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention and transacting other business pertaining to the party. Senator F. P. Bacon was chairman of the last convention and F. M. Burgess of Columbus was secretary. Dr. W. S. Green is chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee.

Concert Tonight

Tryon-Saluda-Inman band will give a concert tonight at 8 o'clock at the school auditorium. A small admission is charged in order to raise funds for equipment and uniforms.

President Roosevelt has appointed John W. Hanes of North Carolina as assistant secretary of the treasury.

Jesse H. Jones, RFC chief is suggested for president in 1940.

George Aid

Prominent Tryon artist died Thursday night about 7:30 at St. Luke's hospital following a long illness. Private funeral services this afternoon at Anderson, S. C.

He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Mary Orr of Anderson, S. C., and one son, George Charles, student at University of North Carolina, also two brothers, H. H. and S. A. Aid of St. Louis, Mo., who visited him several weeks ago.

Mr. Aid made Tryon his home for many years and formerly owned a vineyard on the mountain. He had painted many portraits of visitors and local people but was best noted for his work abroad. "Who's Who of America" had the following account of his achievements:

"Aid, George Charles, artist; b. Quincy, Ill., Aug 26, 1872; s. Francis and Louise (Huber) A.; student Sch. Fine Arts, Washington U., St. Louis, 1890-93, Academie Julian, Paris, France, 1899-1901; m. Mary Orr, of Anderson, S. C., 1910; one son, George Charles. Painting exhibited at Paris Salon, 1906, purchased by Swedish government; etching purchased by Musee National du Luxembourg, (Paris), Royal Gallery of Dresden, N. Y. Pub. Library, Awarded hon. mention in Paris Salon; silver medal La. Purchase Exposition; bronze medal San Francisco World's Fair. Mem. St. Louis Artists Guild, Chicago Society of Etchers, Am. Art. Ass'n of Paris. Home, Tryon, N. C."