

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1938

Girl Scouts At Parish House Tonight

Public Invited To Attend

The most successful year of Girl Scouting in Tryon will close with the Court of Awards at the Parish House tonight at 8 p. m.

Other awards have been announced. In addition to those previously announced the following girls will receive Gold Attendance Stars for 100% attendance at all meetings: Evelyn Cromer, Jean Derby, Mariel Derby, Doris McClure, Hope Schilleter.

Silver Attendance Stars for 90% attendance: Kathleen Andrews, Anne Brundage, Jane Brand, Anne Clark, Katherine Edwards, Dorothy Millikin, Elizabeth Anne Vining, Gelolo Iris Kell.

You are cordially invited to be present.

"CURB" REPORTER

When William Hines, business manager of the Y. M. C. A. at Shanghai, China, has to write the name of his birthplace, he puts down the name of a town that no longer exists, "Poor's Ford, N. C.," a once thriving Polk county community near Green River. . . . A cluttered up desk doesn't bother

Continued on Page Three

Polk Boy from China Rotary Speaker Fri.

William Hines, a native of Polk county, and now business manager of the Y. M. C. A. at Shanghai, China, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnysdale Log Cabin. Dudley Smith has charge of the program. Mr. Hines, who was the guest of M. R. McCown a few days ago, just recently arrived in this country from China to spend his vacation until September. He is now visiting his brother, former U. S. District Attorney Joseph E. Hines, in Spartanburg. Just what phase of the Chinese situation Mr. Hines will talk on is not known but anyone interested in hearing him should make reservations through Rotary Secretary John Landrum or Mr. and Mrs. Kerhulas at Sunnysdale.

Lake Lanier Inn Opens Saturday

M. A. Richards, owner of Oak Hall hotel and Lanier properties announced today that the Lake Lanier Inn and cottages would open on Saturday for the summer season. The inn will be open for those desiring meals and the cottages for roomers. Swimming tickets will also be sold to citizens of the community. Swimming in Lake Lanier is already becoming popular this season.

Feeling over Czech-German situation growing worse. War is feared. Germans protest against violations of border by airplanes.