

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 30, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

Henry Edwards found a 28-pound turtle in Green River the other day near what is known as the Butler Rock. It took four boys, John and Joe Henry Edwards, Woodrow and James Price, to pull the turtle out of the water . . . The other day I wrote about the irritation I felt over cigarettes being thrown on my floor and of the annoyance of having somebody push their knees against the back of my seat in the picture show. Now, I come across this quotation from the great Spurgeon, "Bear the hen's cackle for the sake of the egg. Little annoyances must be put up with because of great advantages." . . . Do you like to write letters? What if you had to answer every letter that came to Tryon wanting information about the community and section, giving information about the climate, roads, hotels, boarding houses, schools, and good places in which to locate for a permanent home. Answering these letters is one of the big jobs of Mrs. E. T. Slagle, secretary of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce. If you are not in business in Tryon but own property here a small check from you would not only help bear the expenses of this good work but would also be an inspiration to the others who are continually working for the good of the community . . . Sometimes

—Continued on Back Page—

Senior Class Night

The Senior class of the Tryon high school will present their annual class exercises tonight. The program follows:

Melodrama, "Save My Child," by Ned Albert. Characters:

Mrs. Julia Quingle, Bell Jackson; Chester Quingle (manly hero), Henry McGeachy; Archibald Quingle, (villain), Edward Manville; Myrtle Jones (maid), Carolyn Slagle; Daisy Dorrance (heroine), Ruth McFarland; Mrs. Sally Crossbury, Lula Burrell; Bing Barnes, Junior Pace; Mary Lawson (bookkeeper), Mildred Fite; this play given by arrangement with Samuel French, New York.

Entre act, baseball skit, Bruce Metcalf; music by orchestra; opening song, Senior class; short play, "Civilized", by Kathryn Krauftman.

Characters: Violinist, Henry McGeachy; Poet, Junior Pace; Artist, Bruce Metcalf; Waister, Bruce Byers; Everyman, Edward Manville; Woman, Mildred Fite.

Note: The stage will be in darkness during the first part of the play.

Saxophone solo, "Song of the Islands?"—Nellie Rushing.

Class History—Glenna Green.

Song skit, "The Old Apple Tree In the Orchard"—Class.

Class Poem—Agnes Murdock.

Class Will—Kathryn Fisher.

Prophecy Scene — Henry McGeachy.

Song Finale—Class.

(Juniors used on program: Ruby Alice Clark, Elizabeth Thackston and Bruce Byers.)