

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1938

Mrs. C. A. Lightner

Death dealt the community a severe blow on Tuesday afternoon when it took Mrs. Clarence A. Lightner at St. Luke's hospital where she had gone for an operation several days ago. Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Cross, Episcopal, with the Rev. John A. Pinckney and the Rev. C. P. Burnett, officiating. The deceased is survived by her husband and the following children: Theodore Lightner of New York, Dr. Clarence M. Lightner of Durham, N. C.; Mrs. Ernest Hopf of New York and Mrs. Daniel Boone of Winston-Salem; also three grandchildren, Theodore, 3rd, of New York, Claudia Lightner of Durham and Daniel Lightner Boone of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Lightner came to Tryon thirty years ago from Detroit and took an active interest in everything for the welfare of the community and county. Her noble deeds of charity are countless. The poor as well as the civic organizations have lost a friend.

Headlines—

Police arrest 317 Jews in Berlin.
Spanish rebels kill 350 women and children in air raids on Spanish town Granollers.

U. S. Senate votes $50,000,000 for direct relief through WPA.

Armstrong, negro fighter, won the welterweight boxing championship Tuesday night from Barney Ross in a 15-round battle.

Japs and Chinese both claim victories in airplane fights in China.

W. R. Mehaffey

Funeral services for W. R. Mehaffey, 80, who died early this morning at St. Joseph's Sanitarium in Asheville, will be held on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in Tryon at St. John's Catholic church conducted by Father Florian. Friends requested not to send flowers. Mr. Mehaffey had been in poor health for sometime. He had made Tryon his home for over 12 years and was deeply interested in the welfare of the community. He had served as secretary and president of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce and was untiring in his efforts to help build a worthwhile community. Before coming to Tryon he was in the newspaper business at Lima, Ohio, where his father before him had owned and operated a newspaper.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Lt.-Col. J. C. Mehaffey, of Washington, D. C., and Robert Mehaffey of Chicago, Ill.

"CURB" REPORTER

Mrs. Lydia Strong is 92 years young today and is receiving the congratulations of many friends. . . . Tryon school library will be open every day Mondays thru Fridays from 9:30 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1 p. m. to 4 p. m., with Miss Patricia Slagle in charge. Student may do their parallel
—Cor used on Back Page—