

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1938

Graduation

Tryon high school commencement exercises were closed Wednesday night with an interesting address by Dr. James C. Kinard, president of Newberry college, who spoke on the need of men with courage of their convictions, honesty of heart and sympathy of soul. The stage was attractively decorated with beautiful flower designs and the following program was given:

Processional: Mrs. Walter Jones.

Invocation: Rev. D. M. McGeachy.

Welcome Address: Henry McGeachy.

Alma Mater: Senior class.

Poem: Miss Lula Burrell.

Commencement Address: Dr. James C. Kinard.

Presentation of Diplomas: Mr. D. S. Blois.

"Now the Day Is Over": Senior Class.

Valedictory Address: Miss Ruth McFarland.

Honors for Four Years High School Study: First Honor, Ruth McFarland; Second Honor, (tie), Lula Burrell, Henry McGeachy.

Class Roll: Lula Mary Burrell, Ruth Maria McFarland, Mae Alison Earley, Henry Newton McGeachy, Emma Katherine Fisher, Laura Agnes Murdock, Mildred Lee Fite, Greenberry Lotan Pace, Jr., Glenna Jeanette Green, Nellie Mae Rushing, Elizabeth Bell Jackson, Sara Carolyn Slagle, Edward Perry Manville, Jr., Homer A. Shields.

In the high school, those students receiving honor certificates are: Anne Clark, Hope Schilleter, Buddv Moore, William Dobbv,

—Continued from Page One—

New Mill Spring School Approved

Congressman Zebulon Weaver announced Wednesday that he had received a telegram from the comptroller general at Washington that the WPA project at Mill Spring calling for the addition of a new school building and auditorium at Mill Spring had been approved. The project had already met the approval of the district and state officials.

Rotary Friday

H. L. Shelnutt will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin.

Miss Helen Roberts will be the guest speaker of the club.

Smith—Rogerson

Mr. and Mrs. Claud O. Smith of Llandrum announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Claudia, to L. A. Rogerson, son of Mrs. Belle Clemmons Rogerson and the late L. A. Rogerson of Andrews, N. C., the wedding to take place in the early summer.

Fishing Season Opens On Friday, June 10th

The fishing season will open on June 10th, on all species of fish. Fishermen are permitted to fish on the opening day.

R. Burton Williams,
Pol County Game Protector.