Election Results

The results of the Polk County Democratic Primary held on Saturday, June 4th, are listed below. The precinct votes will be published in The Polk County News. The County Election Board will meet on Tuesday to officially declare the nominees. Figures available so far are unofficial. All victories were decisive except for Legislature. Baty Hall of Saluda heads the ticket with 1,013; Carroll Rogers is second with 870; James E. Johnson is third with 342; and George E. Bell fourth with 251. Mr. Rogers being out of town it is not known whether he will call for a run-off primary. The vote in Tryon went 375 for Rogers, 206 for Hall, 169 for Bell and 85 for Johnson. The county total is as follows:

For U. S. Senate: Reynolds 2,173, Hancock 438.

Congress, 11th District: Whitmire 1,142, Weaver 1,416.

Representative: Carroll P. Rogers 870, George E. Bell 251, Baty Hall 1,013, J. E. Johnson 342.

Sheriff: W. D. Hines 1,582, W. Y. Wilkins 1,019.

County Commissioner: E. G. Thompson 1,448, T. P. Clark 833.

Clerk of Court: Robert S. McFarland 1,930, D. M. Abrams 843.

In the Tryon Township Constable race W. H. Durham was high man with Buster Foster and Walton Glover both getting over 200 votes each, but Mr. Durham states that Mr. Foster being second high man has declined for a run-off race.

Mrs. P. P. Pressley

Mrs. P. P. Pressley, 52, of Hendersonville died last night in Patton Memorial hospital at Hendersonville after suffering a stroke at about 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Mrs. Pressley had been a resident of Hendersonville for a number of years, having lived in Tryon before moving there. She is survived by her husband, P. P. Pressley, of Hendersonville; three sons, Sidney and James Pressley of Hendersonville and Philetus Pressley of Tryon; two daughters, Mrs. Claude Drake and Miss Bertha Pressley, both of Hendersonville.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at Shepherd's Funeral Home in Hendersonville with burial following in Hendersonville Cemetery.

Cooking School Here Thursday

A cooking school for the colored women of this section will be held on Thursday evening at the Duke Power Co., sales room under the direction of Mrs. Frank Moore, home economist of Greenville, S. C. Instruction will be given in the preparation of meals and in the use and care of electric ranges. This will be the first of a series of schools held every Thursday evening. Prizes will be awarded as in the past. The room will accommodate only about 60 people and those desiring to get the most benefit from the course are urged to attend early.
