Letters—

June 8th, 1938.

The Secretary,
Chamber of Commerce,
Tryon, North Carolina.

Dear Mrs. Slagle:

The Southern Tennis Championships will be held at the Biltmore Forest Country club, Biltmore, N. C. (near Asheville, N. C.) during the week beginning Monday, June 13th.

This tournament should without doubt prove the finest Tennis Tournament ever held in the South.

We know that in your City there must be people who are interested in Tennis.

All we ask for is your kind cooperation.

Yours very truly,
Hurst A. Cecil,
Chairman.
