"CURB" REPORTER

Edwin Markham said: "We have committed the Golden Rule to memory; let us now commit it to life." Invitation from Sadie Patton to attend the Centennial Celebration of Henderson County, North Carolina, at Hendersonville, July 31, Aug. 1, 2, & 3 Capt. Morris A. Bryan has returned to Coconut Grove, Fla. . . . The Boys' club has started off this year with greater enthusiasm. Dr. George Taylor and Mrs. Anne Bosworth Greene have contributed a worthy institution to the com-munity. And the grateful parents of about fifty boys are glad that Major W. A. Schilletter is carrying on the work this year with the help of Mrs. Greene and Dr. Tay-lor. For 5c a week local boys are given much of the benefits of camp life such as learning useful arts and handicrafts, instruction in good citizenship, sportsmanship and the ways of outdoor life; they enjoy the camping activities of hiking, swimming, baseball and various games and contests. Boys are coming in from the Valley and Columbus. It is an opportunity to enrich young lives, an opportunity parents can't afford to pass up when it costs so little. Some kind neighbor might do a good deed by bringing in a load of boys from the country each morning . . . That beautiful vine that covers the wall of the Ballenger Company sounded -Continued on Back Page-
