TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1938

“CURB” REPORTER

When the first Fourth of July was celebrated Tryon was a wilderness. According to an old deed of P. G. Morris showing abstract of title the land around Oak Hall and Tryon in general was sold by the State of North Carolina by Patent No. 1036 to Tench Coxe, assignee of James Greenlee, Lewis Beard and William Erwin. This was on Nov. 26, 1796. Tryon area became known as the Tanyard tract. In 1801 Coxe sold to Wm. Tilgham, Abraham Kuntzing, Stephen Duponceau. In 1819 they sold it to Augustus Sackett, Trustee and he sold to Thos L. Ogden in 1821. All this was Rutherford County until past 1850. Dr. Columbus Mills bought the Morris property on July 1, 1870 from Redmond, Bronson and Randall and he sold it to Frank Wilcox's father, Lemuel N. Wilcox in 1872. It is interesting to trace the changes of ownership of property from the beginning of our country to the present. The abstract for the Morris property was made by Harrison Barrett, former Tryon attorney who now lives in Boston The Blue Ridge Weavers have sold some old 1928 maps of this area showing the rivers, mountains, elevation, and even houses all through most of Polk county and immediate adjoining counties U. S. may build battleships of 45,000 tonnage to match Japan's big ships
