"CURB" REPORTER

Well, ladies, have you seen those cute little Tippy-Tippy hats on display at the Ballenger-Jackson Co. They are so small they can't stay on your head but an elastic band holds them on in army style. The hats are of natural and colored straw about the size and shape of a big saucer. Leaders of fashion are taking to them with a smile . . . Polk County Board of County Commissioners will meet on Tuesday, July 5th, instead of the first Monday which falls this year on July 4th . . . Judge Gentry of Bird Mountain will come up on Tuesday noon to address the Tryon Kiwanis club. . . . C. P. Rogers who is a candidate in today's primary for the state legislature started his business career after leaving college by sweeping floors in a big cotton mill at Union . . . Remember the Fourth to keep it Glorious in honor of the country and your reputation. Longfellow wrote: "Not in the clamor of the crowded street, Nor in the shouts and plaudits of the throng, But in ourselves, are triumph and defeat."
