TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

Just received a beautiful, illustrated booklet from Ottawa, Canada which ably presents the advantages of Canada as an attractive summer resort from ocean to ocean. The Canadian Travel Bureau offers these booklets free to all interested . . . Not only Polk county but North Carolina as a whole is getting sick of the Absentee Ballow Law with all its misuses. The State Board of Elections and leading legislators of the State are going to make an effort to correct the situation at the next session of the legislature. Chairman John T. Coates of the Polk County Election Board promised to call a registration of all voters between June and Fall. A registration would help eliminate many of the "dead" and "moved away" names from the poll sheets . . . That was a nice rain today, cooling, refreshing and needed for the farms and lawns . . . The North Carolina State Press Association is meeting this week in Blowing Rock . . . Carl Goerch who wrote the Zipper Story for his magazine, says "Scores of newspapers in all parts of the country reprinted it, including some of those of Washington, Chicago and other large cities. It came to our attention last week in Judge in its entirety, with due credit given the State". . . . Five people were
