(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY

JULY 16, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

Mrs. Walter West writing from Cape May, N. J., where the Wests are vacationing says: "Our day is not complete without our Tryon Bulletin", so we are changing it from Middleburg, Va., to Cape May . . . . More and more Tryon friends are using the Bulletin to contact each other, because the Bulletin follows so many of them on vacation and from place to place . . . . Not long ago some one telegraphed a friend about the death of another friend and said in the telegram to notify the Bulletin. The friend was out-of-town and the Bulletin didn't know the news until the next day. The quickest way to notify friends is to tell the Bulletin first and have your message to name any special friend . . . . Anyone interested in the early history of this section would have enjoyed George Hamilton Holmes' talk at the Rotary club on Friday. Thanks to Dr. Walter Green, I was a guest. Mr. Holmes' people came from England via Canada and his father had planned to go to California in '49. Good thing he didn't for members of this party were all killed by the Indians enroute. Mr. Holmes settled in Henderson county in 1882 and during his life time has seen more modern improvements than were made during the thousands of years before then, telephone, electricity, auto.
