

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1938

Capt. David Hedekin Is Fatally Injured

Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., July 20.—Captain David D. Hedekin, 33, of Fort McPherson, Atlanta, died at the Post hospital here today from injuries suffered in a polo game Sunday.

Playing on the Fort McPherson team, Captain Hedekin was thrown from his horse during the first chukker and was dragged a considerable distance. His fall injured his head and he never recovered consciousness.

Captain Hedekin was a native of Arizona, the son of Brigadier General and Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin of Washington, D. C. He was graduated from West Point in 1927 with the rank of second lieutenant and was promoted to captain in 1937. He had been stationed at Fort McPherson four years.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his widow and a brother, Captain Thomas B. Hedekin, of Fort Knox, Kd.—Exchange.

Captain Hedekin was well-known to all horse show lovers of this section having been a popular rider in the Tryon Horse Show for a number of years. He will be buried Friday in Arlington National Cemetery, near Washington, D. C.

Ford Infant

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ford which was born this morning and died shortly afterwards will be buried this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Tryon cemetery.

Oak Hall Open

Oak Hall Hotel announces in an advertisement in today's Bulletin that it is opening for the balance of the summer season on account of the demand for accommodations. The hotel usually closes for the summer and opens in October for the winter season but increased interest in this section has brought more guests than usual for this time of year.

Rotary to Hear School Dean

John T. Arledge will be in charge of the Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m. at Sunnydale. The guest speaker will be Mrs. John Ashley, dean of the exclusive Graham-Eckes school of Daytona Beach, Fla. Her subject will be "Private Schools."

Boys' Club

Rain kept us from going in swimming at the Country club today, but we had a good time playing indoor baseball and tennis. All boys are progressing nicely with their work.—David Cromer.

U. S. Offers to bring back Corrigan free from Ireland, and five steamship lines make him the same offer. All kinds of propositions have been made to him in recognition of his trip alone to Ireland. One group of citizens want to present him a $25,000 airplane.

English king and queen in France. It is reported that the king will speak over the radio Friday morning at 7:30. Columbia Broadcasting.