Boys' Finals Friday

Major W. A. Schilleter announces that final exercises "commencement" of the Tryon Boys' club will be held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the school auditorium at which time awards will be given for outstanding boys and to the winning group making the most points. The handicraft work done by the boys will be on display including the boat which has just been completed and is ready for the water. A large number of boys started this morning on baskets which they hope to have completed by Friday. Two teams have been selected for an exhibition of volley ball. The public is cordially invited to attend the program and see the good work the boys have been doing.

The Price Is 15c

The price of admission for children at the Oxford Orphanage concert tonight at the school auditorium is 15c instead of the price advertised yesterday. Admission for adults is 25c.

Headlines

The Holy Land is still in an uproar with battles between the Jews and Arabs. 45 people killed and 75 injured.

The Japs had a battle with the Chinese yesterday and captured Kiukiang, 135 miles below Hankow on the Yangtze river.

The Spanish government troops advanced against the rebels yesterday.

Orphanage Singing Here Tonight

The Oxford Orphanage Singing Class arrived in Tryon today for their annual concert at the Tryon school auditorium. Songs, drills dances and acting feature the program which is under the direction of Mrs. Sadie T. Hutchinson. The admission is 15 and 25c and is one of the ways of earning money to help defray the expenses of this wonderful institution which since 1872 has benefitted over 6,000 children who are now in all parts of the world making use of the opportunities given them at the Orphanage. A large crowd is expected for the performance tonight as over 50 family tickets have already been sold. Time 8 o'clock.

LANTHIER—LAWRENCE

A marriage of interest to their many friends was that of Miss Lorraine Lanthier of Duluth, Minn., and Mr. Fred Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lawrence of Tryon, which took place July 16th at Duluth, Minnesota.

Forest City Golfers Coming Thursday

Larry Brooks, Pro at the Tryon Country club has been advised that a team of 12 to 20 players of the Forest City Country club will come to Tryon on Thursday to play local golfers. Pro Brooks asks all men who can play on the Tryon team to please notify him as soon as possible.
