from Lake Lanier. Mrs. Parmelee says she is the only one who has the hardihood to go in for a swim in her part of the bay. The water is only suitable for Eskimos. Effie Holden writes from California that she has been lunching with the Donald Peatties. They read in the Bulletin about her dogwood tea and are happy to know that the two homes are open and working in unison once more. Please keep on telling us all you know every day."

The Greenville county road crew began work on Tuesday repairing the Lake Lanier road to the Boy Scout camp. This road has been almost impassable since the heavy rains last week.

Miss Mary Anne Morris is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schartle, in Asheville.

Phil Morris is visiting Don Galloway in Burnsville.

Miss Lucy Wade, arts and craft; Miss Lillian Beam, nurse, and Miss Frances Keating, pioneering, of the staff of the Girls Scout camp, Catechee, visited Tryon today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brownlee have returned from a week's vacation at Myrtle Beach.

Robert Brigmon of Mill Spring had an operation this morning at St. Luke's hospital.

Paul Ringer, Jr., was host Sunday for a buffet supper party which was given in celebration of the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Rogers, Jr., of Burnsville. Many members of the wedding party were present. Mrs. Rogers, Jr., is the former Miss Eleanor Rogers, whose wedding last July 24 was an outstanding event of the summer at Trinity Episcopal church. Last evening's party took place at the home of the hosts' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Ringer, of 237 Pearson drive. The end of the first marital year is marked by a "paper anniversary" and appropriate gifts were given to the couple.—Asheville Citizen.
