Niece of Mrs. Sloss In Movies Here

Barbara O'Neil, a grand-niece of Mrs. A. C. Sloss of Tryon, will be starred with Luise Rainer in the Toy Wife at Tryon's Theatre on Sunday and Monday. Miss O'Neil has not been to Tryon but her mother, Mrs. David O'Neil, of Cos Cob, Conn., visited Mr. and Mrs. Sloss last Christmas and local friends of the family are interested in the appearance of Miss O'Neil here. "Toy Wife" won the Brilliant Academy award. Scene laid in Louisiana of 1850's. Miss O'Neil appeared here before with Barbara Stanwyck, as the second wife in "Stella Dallas." She was leading lady last summer for Walter Huston on the stage in "Miles of Heaven" and was once assistant stage manager for Melvyn Douglas, who plays opposite Luise Rainer in "Toy Wife."

Chicago, July 28.—The Pullman company announced tonight rates for all Pullman car accommodations—with the exception of upper berths—would be advanced five per cent next Monday.
