The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, AUG. 1, 1938

Mrs. John Ashley At Kiwanis

At the Kiwanis one o'clock luncheon tomorrow at Hotel Tryon Mrs. John Ashley, Dean of the Graham-Eckes School of Daytona Beach, Florida, will speak on "The Junior College in the Field of The Education." Graham-Eckes School besides dbing college preparatory work also covers the field of the Junior College and Mrs. Ashley, both by experience and observation, is well fitted to discuss the theme. The Rotary-Ki-wanis committee recently appointed to explore the possibility of securing a girls' preparatory school for Tryon will meet immediately after the luncheon. Residents of the community both men and women who are interested to hear Mrs. Ashley's discussion of the Junior College will be welcomed at the Kiwanis luncheon but they should notify Seth Vining, Secretary, Monday night or Tuesday morning early that sufficient places may be provided. Those who may not be able to come to the luncheon may come at 1:30 p. m., to hear the address.

TRYON SCOUTS AT AT CAMP NOW

Tryon Boy Scout Troop, No. 1, are at the Piedmont Council Boy Scout camp this week in charge of Dr. Kerrison Juniper. Scouts included in the troop are Harold Taylor, Bill Derby, Seth Vining, Jimmie Jackson, Lock McGeachy, Frank McFarland, George Cooksey, Pickens Durham, Marvin Edwards, Bruce Byers, Charles Ford, Robert Andrews, Holland Brady.

"CURB" REPORTER

Capt. J. H. Smith of Charlotte, an uncle of Mrs. L. A. Avant of Tryon, retired last week at the age of 73 from the Southern Railway which he had helped serve the South for 57 years without a de-Captain Smith has often visited Tryon and as a conductor on the train he made hundreds of friends all over the South. The Charlotte Observer said that Capt. Smith began work at 16 as a brakeman in 1881; was promoted to freight conductor in 1883 and passerger conductor in 1897. A remarkable record—57 continuous years of service without a blemish . . . Nelson Jackson, Jr., tells of an interesting visit with Henry Shankle, Jr., and other members of the family at Portland, Oregon, where Henry is do-ing well with his own printing business and publishes a monthly Epworth League Bulletin the same size of this paper. Henry is continuing his education in spare time and is living a well-rounded life. Not long ago he was made an officer of the Methodist church in Portland. Henry will be remembered by many readers of the Bulletin for his successful solo trip across the continent in a $20 second-hand Model "T" Ford; he kept the Bulletin informed of his trip. Henry got his first printing experience with the Bulletin and passed the Boy Scout Merit tests—Continued on Back Page— Epworth League Bulletin the same