

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, AUG. 8, 1938

Polk County Is Not Represented In Senate In Special Session

Due to the resignation of Senator F. P. Bacon of Tryon, Polk county will not be represented in the upper house during the special session of the State Assembly, convening today at the call of Governor Clyde R. Hoey. Senator Bacon resigned as Senator from this district to accept a position on the town council of Tryon, and his resignation had already been accepted by the Governor.

Representative T. J. McDowell of Polk county, left Sunday to attend the special session in his official capacity.

"Boggey" Golf Match Is Postponed

Pro Larry Brooks of the Tryon Country club stated this morning that due to unfavorable weather, the "Boggey" Golf Matches at the Country club had to be postponed until next weekend.

Kiwanis Tuesday

Carroll P. Rogers has charge of the Tryon Kiwanis club program Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. Frank W. Eubank of Hendersonville will speak of his experiences in Germany and on the continent.

Masons Meet Tonight

The Jeff L. Nelson Masonic Lodge No. 605, A. F. & A. M., will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. All visiting Masons urged to attend.

Tryon Woman Is Seriously Injured In Automobile Accident

Miss Helen Scruggs of Tryon was reported resting comfortably at St. Luke's hospital this morning where she was carried after being run down by a car at the Howes-Conner bridge here late Saturday night. Attaches at the hospital reported that Miss Scruggs suffered a broken leg, a broken arm and a dislocated shoulder.

The car was driven by Marion Chapman of Inman, S. C., who carried Miss Scruggs to the hospital immediately after the accident. He was held under technical arrest by Sheriff Hines of Polk county pending the outcome of Miss Scruggs' injuries.

Columbus Woman Wounded Saturday

Mrs. Burt Edwards, 35, a resident of Columbus, was carried to St. Luke's hospital Saturday afternoon suffering from a bullet wound in the leg. According to Sheriff W. D. Hines, Mrs. Edwards was hit by a bullet from a small calibre rifle in the hands of her husband, Burt Edwards. The Sheriff also stated that an investigation had failed to reveal the cause of the shooting, and that a warrant had been issued for the arrest of Edwards, but at a late hour Monday he had not been apprehended. Mrs. Edwards was reported to be resting fairly comfortable at the hospital at noon today.