

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., AUGUST 10, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

By JAMES E. JOHNSON

Work began this morning on the replacement of the narrow Howes-Conner bridge over Pacolet River, with a new and wider span. The accident Saturday, that placed one person in the hospital, further emphasized the need for a safer bridge at this point . . . if any further emphasis was needed . . . Senatorial-minded Governor Olin D. Johnston, of South Carolina, spoke briefly to the voters in nearby Landrum Tuesday. According to reports of some of those present, the "I's" were placed well forward in all parts of the address. . . . The past few days of reasonably clear weather have given rise to hopes that the "Dog Days" rainy spell has been broken, and that the noticeable slump in both business and travel due to the excessive rainfall, will disappear. . . . In the current issue of the Duke Power Magazine, and under a Glen W. Naves by-line is a word description of the Bulletin and also a picture of the editor, who is at present, with his family down at Cherry Grove Beach, being contaminated with the sunshine and sea breezes of this delightful resort. A card from them received today says: "We are having a great time. We've been in water at least twice a day. Going out in a boat several miles

—Continued on Back Page—

New Registration Is Called of Voters In Polk County

According to a statement by telephone to the Bulletin from John T. Coates, Jr., of Saluda, chairman of the Polk County Election Board, a new registration of the county's eligible voters will be taken before the General Election in November.

Chairman Coates said that the election board, composed of Chairman Coates; Henry Thompson, of Mill Spring and Nesbit Walker, Republican member, also of Mill Spring, in a meeting at the court house on the first Monday in August went on record as unanimously favoring a new registration in the county, and that according to law, it must be taken at least 30 days before the fall election.

Mr. Coates also stated that the board, in granting a re-registration, was complying with numerous requests by members of both the Democrat and Republican parties of the county.

Major Bernard Sharp At Rotary On Friday

Major Bernard Sharp will address the Tryon Rotary club at its regular meeting at Sunnydale Friday at 7 p. m. He will speak on the "Situation In the Far East."

Douglas Blois has charge of the program.

PWA building bill passes second reading at special session of Assembly in Raleigh.