Hendersonville Closes Largest Horse Show

Record crowds attended the finals of Hendersonville's Third Annual Horse Show yesterday. An estimated 2,500 people filled every available vantage point during the riding contests and cheered the brilliant show of horsemanship in each of the different classes.

Friday afternoon winners included Mrs. Sam Bingham, Jr., of Tryon, who topped in the "Gay Nineties Class."

Piney Mountain Sold

The Prentice Luckey home on Piney Mountain has been recently sold to Mrs. Caroline H. Hale and daughter, Miss Patricia Hale. They come here from Milwaukee. The sale was made through C. J. Lynch.

Special Session To Adjourn Today

Members of the special session of the North Carolina General Assembly finished the two remaining steps early today that authorizes the State of North Carolina to participate in the PWA Spending Program. Side-stepping action on other bills that would have prolonged the session, both legislative bodies prepared to return home from their third official trip to Raleigh in their two-year terms. The State Democratic executive committee met last night in the hall of the house to elect a party chairman and vice-chairman. Representative T. J. McDowell was the only member to attend from Polk county.

Kiwanis Picnic On Lake Tuesday

Instead of the regular 1 o'clock meeting on Tuesday the Kiwanis club will have a picnic on the dock at Lake Lanier Tea House at 6 o'clock. Members are invited to bring friends.
