

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N.C., MONDAY AUGUST 15, 1938

Stewart Williams

Stewart Williams, 53, well-known farmer of Columbus township and a member of a prominent Polk county family, died this morning at 11 o'clock after a lingering illness. Funeral plans have not been completed but services will be held some time Tuesday afternoon. The deceased was caretaker for the Skyuka hotel property and was a watchman at the Forest Fire Tower on Tryon Mountain. He is survived by his widow and eleven children; also three brothers and one sister. His children are Mrs. Herbert Thompson of Columbus; Ruth, Ina, Gladys, Boyce, Howard, Irene, George, Betty Jean, Peggy Joyce and Lorene. His sister, Mrs. John Foster; brothers, John, Will and Burton.

Tryon Lambasts Biltmore Team 11 to 2

Tryon's Industrial League Baseball team used the "old pole" to pound Biltmore into a 11 to 2 victory at Harmon Field Saturday. Jim Fisher led the onslaught with a homer, two doubles and a single to carry swating honors. Hardin, Capps and Arledge formed the trio as batteries for Tryon.

Next Saturday Tryon will play the strong Enka team at Harmon Field at 3:30 p. m.

Kiwanis Picnic

Tryon Kiwanians and their families will hold a picnic supper on Tuesday evening at Lake Lanier Inn dock. J. E. Brownlee, L. A. Avant and Hoyt O. Prince are in charge of the program.

"CURB" REPORTER

It is nice to be back in Tryon. The view of the mountains as you approach Tryon is an inspiring sight. We had a good time and enjoyed every day at the ocean, but we don't think there is any place as good as this section. A week away makes you appreciate it more . . . The first thing noticed in Tryon was the big pile of brick and lumber in front of the old theatre building and this morning men were at work with hammer and saw . . . The new Crandall apartments are nearing completion on Melrose Avenue looking at the building from the outside . . . Found on my desk an interesting 18th anniversary edition of the Farmers Federation News of which Blackburn W. Johnson is editor and Dr. James G. K. McClure is president . . . The week we left for the coast was "better rural mail box week" and a lot of farmers had painted their boxes attractively and lettered their names on them . . . One of the nicest treats we had while there was a box of Tryon grapes from Dr. Fuldner. They came packed in good shape. Not a one was even bruised. August is a good month to send your friends some Tryon Grapes. Dr. Lea sent us some grapes from Tau Rock Vineyards just before we left . . .