

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., AUGUST 17, 1938

"CURB" REPORTER

Charlie Lynch gave the Kiwanians and their guests a nice treat at the picnic on Tuesday evening at Lake Lanier Inn dock. There's nothing nicer than a ride in his motorboat. And Fiddlin' John Weaver of Green Creek entertained with his celebrated fiddle which he has taken to Washington, D. C., and other places in con? tests . . . . Preacher Charles Trammel reports that John Artz, former Polk Agent has been promoted to assistant state head of the 4-H clubs and also county agent-at-large for the state of North Carolina with headquarters at Raleigh. John is a former president of the Tryon Kiwanis club and has many friends in this county . . . . Polk County Superior Court begins next Monday in Columbus, and a house furnishing and home management demonstration will be given on Monday at Green Creek school by Mamie Whisnant, state specialist of Raleigh. Time 2:30. Public invited . . . . On next Tuesday the County Agents are promoting a tour of the farms and homes of the county. Anyone interested is invited to join . . . . Printed card from Carter Brown at Castle Park, Mich., says in part: "Having a swell time lying on the beach, riding, playing tennis, golf, dancing. Water Sports Carnival Aug. 13, Horse Show 25, Cabaret Party 27, and interesting weekend

--- Continued on back page ---

Williams Rites Held Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services for Stewart Williams, 53, of Columbus, who died Monday morning after a long illness, were held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of his brother, John N. Williams.

The Rev. Malcolm Ross, of Tryon, officiated, assisted by the Rev. G. V. Tilley, of Columbus. Burial was in the family cemetery. Nephews were pallbearers.

Mr. Williams, a member of the Columbus Baptist church, was a well-known farmer.

Surviving are his widow, the former Miss Minnie Waiker, of Mill Spring; and the following children: Mrs. Hubbard Thompson, Ruth, Gladys, Boyce, Irene, Howard, George, Betty Jean, Peggie Joyce and Lorene. Also surviving are three brothers, John N., William W., and R. Burton Williams, and one sister, Mrs. John Foster.

Tryon Motor Co. Personnel Enjoys Outing on Monday

Manager C. O. Smith of the Tryon Motor Company, accompanied by J. L. Spiegel, General Foster and W. B. Foster of the force, returned early Tuesday morning from a day's picnic outing sponsored by the North and South Carolina Division of the Chevrolet Motor Company. The activities were held at the Sedgefield Inn, near Greensboro, and consisted of soft ball, golf and tennis games, wrestling, boxing and varieties of races. Barbecue and other refreshments were served. The outing was given in recognition of an excellent record in the recent Used Car Reduction Campaign.