McCown Elected Bar President

Attorney M. R. McCown of Tryon was elected president of the North Carolina 18th District Bar Association at the annual meeting on Saturday at Sunnysdale in Tryon. Other officers elected were Oscar J. Mooneyham, vice-president, of Forest City; and Ralph Ramsey, secretary - treasurer of Brevard. The meeting next year will be held at Rutherfordton. Supreme Court Judge Michael Schenck said the meeting was one of the best district meetings he had ever attended. Over fifty lawyers from the district and a number of prominent citizens of the community were present. The address of welcome was given by Attorney McCown and the response was made by Secretary Ramsey of Brevard. Past President Robert Proctor of Marion gave his address on the work of the association. ## Tryon Lost To Enka Saturday

Up until the ninth inning Tryon had Enka beat 3-2 in an important game of the Industrial League on Saturday at Harmon Field. The two teams were tied for first place, but in the ninth inning Enka put the pressure on for a 4-inning rally to win the game and break the tie for the league leadership. The score by innings is as follows:

Enka	000	020	004	—6	10	2
Tryon	200	000	100	—3	9	3

Tuxedo Woman Is Drowned In Lake Summitt

Hendersonville, Aug. 20.—Miss Lois Earle Freeman, 24, of Tuxedo, Henderson county, was drowned about 4 o'clock this afternoon in Lake Summitt, near here.

One report received here was that Miss Freeman was trying to swim across the lake when she drowned. Another was that she was floating on the surface of the lake and suddenly disappeared from sight.

Rescuers and those who made resuscitation efforts were Bob and Ken Herbert, counselors at Camp Mondamin for boys on Lake Summitt, and Bill Bangs, of Hendersonville.

The body was brought to Patton Memorial hospital here and an inhaler was brought here by the Enka police department. According to hospital reports, no signs of life were noted after the body was brought to the hospital about 5 o'clock.

Bruce A. Cox, Henderson county coroner, said tonight that no inquest was deemed necessary.—Asheville Citizen.
