

R*Professional Pharmacists*R

PHONE NO. 4

MISSILDINE'S

PHONE No. 4

G. C. Furr, superintendent and general manager of the Adams-Millis plants here and in Highpoint, left today for Highpoint until Monday when he will return to Tryon.

J. W. Zulauf, representing the Hopkins Tailoring Company of Baltimore is at the Ballenger-Jackson Company today. Mr. Zulauf has been coming to Tryon for a number of years to measure the men of this section for tailor-made clothes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cowan and son, Joseph and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macuga and son, Charles, Jr., and daughter, Joan, have returned to Cleveland, Ohio, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Costa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Swann of Weaverville, visited Mr. and Mrs. John T. Panther of Lynn over the weekend.

BOOK YOUR ORDER NOW FOR Fall and Winter Suits

PAY LATER ! !

A. NASH, Representative
E. G. BALLEW

Misses Betty and Molly Stevenson of Crestwood, N. Y., are guests at Oak Hall hotel.

Reddy Remarks

I cook the Food, not the Cook!

Duke Power Co.

© 1935 P

TM REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

For Refreshment time

BUY THE SIX-BOTTLE CARTON*25¢ Plus deposit

G-6