And—The End?

By HILDA VÓN SILLER

They fought by air and they fought by fire,
And they left Hell where they went!
And they knew not right—only maddened ire,
And their strength seemed still unspent!
Then, the waters fell,—aye, the waters fell
Till they rose again in wrath,
And they rolled and swirled on the war-mad world:
And what is the after-math?
Not victory o'er the conquered
land;
But ruin and wreck and woe.
Grim Famine and Death and the Plague's foul breath
Will meet them where'er they go!
