

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N.C., MONDAY, AUG. 29, 1938

Earle Rion Ties Course Record

Earle Rion playing nine holes at the Tryon Country club on Sunday tied the course record of 34 strokes held by Pro. Larry Brooks. Brooks established the record last year.

LEONARD—ANDREWS

The following announcement has been received by friends of the bride and groom:

"Mr. and Mrs. Wofford Andrews Foster announce the marriage of Miss Helen June Leonard to Mr. James Brookshire Andrews on Saturday, August the twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and thirty eight, Hendersonville, North Carolina."

The wedding ceremony was held at the Catholic church. Immaculate conception at 7:30 p. m., with Father Phillip O'Mara, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard of Tryon. She was educated at Belmont Academy and for the past several years has been in the office of Jackson & Jackson.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Andrews of Tryon and Flat Rock and is associated with his father in business.

News Headlines

President asserts issue in South Carolina clarified. Two schools of political thoughts face test in vote. Pick senator on Tuesday. Withdrawal of Brown narrows choice of electorate.

Mrs. Ashley, Guest Speaker At Kiwanis

Mrs. John Ashley, dean of the Graham Eckes school at Daytona Beach, Florida, will address the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday noon at Hotel Tryon. Mrs. Ashley has just returned from New England where she had a number of conferences with school officials feeling out the possibilities of bringing to Tryon a fine private school or junior college. On Tuesday she will tell of the opportunity Tryon has of getting one of the best dramatic schools in the country. A school that is ready to come to Tryon for this winter session. It is a school that would bring to Tryon a faculty of charming, influential people who will draw to the community distinguished friends and talented pupils from all over the nation. Anyone desiring to hear Mrs. Ashley should notify Seth M. Vining, secretary of the Kiwanis club, not later than tonight if lunch is desired. Those not caring for lunch may drop in at the hotel at 1:30 p. m. Lunch will be served at 1 o'clock.

Flag Results

The winners of the flag tournament held at the Tryon Country club during the weekend are as follows: Class A—Baxter Haynes, first; Earle Rion, second. Class B—E. C. Rowe, first; Amos Foster, second. Class C—Seth Vining, Jr., first; Claude Helms, second. Class D—Marshall Ballew.