

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPT. 5, 1938

Rotary, Kiwanis And Others to Meet at Oak Hall

A joint meeting of the Tryon Rotary and Kiwanis clubs will be held on Wednesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel for the purpose of meeting Miss Sally Stearns and Miss Inez Simons, officials of the Peterboro Players of Peterboro, N. H., who are here to investigate the possibilities of bringing their school of drama to Tryon. Anyone interested in attending this meeting and desiring lunch at 75c should notify Oak Hall, or John Landrum or Seth M. Vining at once in order that a sufficient number of plates may be reserved. If lunch is not desired visitors may drop in at the hotel at 1:30. Through courtesy of M. A. Richards the main dining room of the hotel has been thrown open for use of the meeting.

IMPORTANT

E. Perry Manville, chairman of the committee on securing a drama school for Tryon states that it is very important that all those desiring to attend the joint Rotary-Kiwanis meeting on Wednesday at Oak Hall should make their reservations at once and be responsible for the price of their lunch. The hotel must know the exact number of plates to prepare.

Chamber of Commerce Meets On Friday

A meeting of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce will be held on Friday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term.

"CURB" REPORTER

The Misses Fassett left Portland, Maine, on Saturday and will arrive in Tryon soon. They report seeing the Jerry Drews and Coach Wallace Wade, and family. Friends in Portland interested in the Bulletin . . . Librarian Mary Carpenter has received a post card from Margaret H. Bomar showing the world's smallest library at Point Clear, Ala. Miss Bomar is spending her vacation at Mobile Bay . . . J. S. Massenburg was here for the weekend from Raleigh . . . This is Labor Day, but only the bank, post office and a few building workers enjoyed it as a holiday . . . A large crowd turned out this morning at the opening of Tryon graded school to hear Dr. W. P. Jackson, former Field Secretary of the National Recreational Association . . . Publius Syrus said, "God looks with favor at pure, not full hands". . . Chief Hague Kiser was busy Saturday having cars moved off Trade street. If employers and employees don't cooperate it will be necessary to pass parking laws. Whenever any employer or employee leaves his car parked all day on Trade street it means that others will follow. . . The Polk County Election Board has ordered a registration of all voters in Polk county for the coming election. Official notice will be published later . . .