James C. Flynn, Aged Resident Passes

James C. Flynn, 87, one of Polk county's oldest residents died at 11 p. m., Friday night at the home of his son, William Flynn of Landrum route 1. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at the Green Creek Baptist church with the Rev. E. E. Bomar officiating. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

The deceased is survived by the following children: William, Robert, Walker and J. C., all of Landrum route 1; Tom J., of Landrum route 3; and one sister, Mrs. Mary Shehan, of Rutherfordton.

Mr. Flynn was reared and spent most of his life in the neighborhood in which he died, and until his retirement a few years ago, he was one of the county's best known farmers. He had been in declining health for some time and his death was not unexpected.

The pallbearers have been announced as follows: Donell, Ralph, Leo, Glynn, Joe and William Flynn, grandsons of the deceased.

Chamber Commerce Elects Officers

The Tryon Chamber of Commerce met Friday night at 8 o'clock at Missildine's Hall and elected the following directors: Dr. E. E. Missildine, George H. Holmes, E. Perry Manville, K. A. Bowen, Seth M. Vining. The directors then elected the following officers: E. Perry Manville, president; K. A. Bowen, vice-president. Mrs. E. T. Slagle was appointed secretary-treasurer. Following the open meeting of the organization the directors went into executive session and discussed plans for the coming season's work and appointed committees on finance, publicity and by-laws. In her report to the organization Mrs. Slagle reported that hundreds of inquiries had been received asking for information about Tryon and vicinity. The demand had been so great that the supply of booklets and other literature of Tryon was about exhausted.

As soon as plans are ready for submission to the organization President Manville will call a meeting. (EDITORIAL). — Mr. Manville, the new president, is vice-president of the Tryon Rotary club and since coming to Tryon from Charlotte about four years ago, he has given active service to the Boy Scouts, hospital, church and other organizations. As chairman of the Rotary-Kiwanis joint committee to secure a private school or junior college for Tryon the committee has shown unusual speed and resourcefulness in getting things done. Mr. Bowen, the
